

BUP Knowledge Base

Bangladesh University of Professionals (BUP)

Bangladesh University of Professionals, established on June 5, 2008, is a unique public university operated and administered by the Bangladesh Armed Forces. It is the 31st public university of Bangladesh, established under the BUP Act 2009, and is located on a 64-acre campus in Mirpur Cantonment, Dhaka. Unlike any other public university in Bangladesh, BUP is completely session-jam-free, ensuring students graduate on time. The university maintains a zero-tolerance policy for student politics, ragging, and campus violence.

BUP serves over 10,000 students with more than 710 faculty members, including 241 permanent faculty and 273 renowned adjunct faculty. An impressive 171 faculty members hold PhDs from North America, Europe, and Australia. The Vice-Chancellor is Major General Md. Mahbub-ul-Alam, a career military officer with an MPhil and PhD.

The university has 6 faculties: Arts and Social Sciences, Security and Strategic Studies, Science and Technology, Business Studies, and Medical Studies, along with the Centre for Modern Languages and the Centre for Higher Studies and Research. These faculties house 18 departments offering programs in English, economics, sociology, development studies, public administration, international relations, mass communication and journalism, security and strategic studies, disaster and human security management, computer science and engineering, environmental science and management, business administration, and law. Graduate programs include MBA, MA in English, Master of Development Studies, LLM Professional, Master of Public Health, MSc in Computer Science and Engineering, MSc in Cyber Security, and Master of Peace, Conflict and Human Rights. The university also offers MPhil and PhD programs and has over 600 scholars enrolled through its Centre for Higher Studies and Research.

BUP has a unique admissions system using an 8-point GPA scale. Science applicants need a minimum GPA of 5.0 in SSC and 4.5 in HSC, business studies applicants need 4.5 and 4.0, and arts and humanities applicants need 4.0 and 3.5. The admission process includes a written test and viva, with an application fee of BDT 1,500.

As a public university, tuition is minimal. BBA costs approximately BDT 8,000 to 10,000 per semester, and CSE costs BDT 10,000 to 12,000 per semester. MBA programs are more expensive at around BDT 60,000 to 80,000 total. The university's annual budget is 149 crore BDT.

Scholarships include merit awards for top CGPA holders, military personnel scholarships for children of armed forces members, freedom fighter quota scholarships, need-based financial aid, Dean's List awards, and the Vice-Chancellor's Award.

BUP has over 55 affiliated institutes across the country, including military medical colleges, the National Defence College, the Defence Services Command and Staff College, and the Bangladesh Military Academy. This network creates unique opportunities for civil-military integration in education.

Student clubs include the BUP Debating Society, Cultural Club, Computer Club, Business Club, Law and Moot Court Society, Sports Clubs, BNCC, Environment Club, and Language Club. BUP organizes an annual career fest and hosts international conferences on security and strategic studies.

The university ranks 5th among 46 public universities in the UGC Annual Performance Agreement for 2021-2023. EduRank places it 22nd in Bangladesh. Its unique military administration has been both praised for maintaining discipline and criticized over questions about academic freedom. The university manages periodic issues with its large network of affiliated military institutions. Faculty recruitment is conducted through UGC and advertised on the university website.

Admission Process

BUP conducts its own independent admission test outside the GST cluster system. The admission process for the 2025-2026 session runs from November 10 to December 7, 2025 for undergraduate programs. Applications are submitted online at admission.bup.edu.bd. The admission test consists of a 100-mark MCQ written exam with the following distribution: English (40 marks), General Knowledge (40 marks), and Bangla (20 marks). Negative marking of 0.25 applies for each wrong answer. Final selection weightage: MCQ exam (55%), HSC/equivalent result (25%), and SSC/equivalent result (20%). Minimum requirements for undergraduate: SSC/HSC pass from any discipline with specified minimum GPA (varies by program, typically total GPA 8.00 for science group). For BSS in Economics, candidates need minimum A- grade in Economics/Accounting/Statistics/Higher Mathematics. Eligibility for eligible candidates published December 14, 2025. Admit cards downloadable from January 1, 2026. Written tests held in January 2026 (specific dates by faculty). For graduate programs: minimum CGPA 2.50 in relevant bachelor's degree. For MPH: MBBS, BDS, or 4-year degree in life/social sciences with at least second class in all exams. BUP operates a separate admission portal for international students.

Credit System and Duration

Bangladesh University of Professionals (BUP) operates on a semester-based academic calendar, with each academic year divided into two semesters typically running January-June and July-December. Undergraduate programs span four years comprising eight semesters, while postgraduate programs range from one to two years depending on the discipline. The total credit hour requirements vary by program: the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and Engineering requires 160 credit hours, the Bachelor of Business Administration programs require 133 credit hours, and the BSS (Hons) in Development Studies requires 126 credit hours. Graduate programs such as the Master of Social Science in Economics require 33 credit hours completed over two semesters, while the Regular MBA program requires 48 credit hours and the Professional MBA requires 66 credit hours. The grading system follows a 4.00 scale where A+ (80-100) earns 4.00 grade points, A (75-79) earns 3.75, A- (70-74) earns 3.50, B+ (65-69) earns 3.25, B (60-64) earns 3.00, B- (55-59) earns 2.75, C+ (50-54) earns 2.50, C (45-49) earns 2.25, and D (40-44) earns 2.00, with F (below 40) receiving 0.00. The minimum passing grade is D (2.00 CGPA), and students must maintain a minimum CGPA to remain in good academic standing. The academic calendar for 2024 and 2026 has been published detailing semester start and end dates, examination periods, holidays, and co-curricular activity schedules. BUP is notably the only session jam-free public university in Bangladesh, ensuring students complete their programs within the stipulated time frame without delays. The university follows a structured course registration system, and the academic year includes provisions for supplementary examinations, retake courses, and special final examinations with associated fees.

Tuition and Costs Overview

The fee structure at Bangladesh University of Professionals is highly affordable compared to private universities in Bangladesh, with total program costs varying significantly by faculty and degree level. For undergraduate programs, the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and Engineering has a total tuition fee of Tk. 90,510, while the BBA in Management Studies costs Tk. 73,910, and the BSS in Development Studies is Tk. 68,850. These figures represent the base tuition and do not include additional fees such as admission fees, semester registration fees, library fees, lab fees, examination fees, and student welfare charges. The Master in Information and Communication Technology program provides a detailed breakdown: admission fee Tk. 10,000, semester registration Tk. 1,000, course registration at Tk. 100 per credit, library fee Tk. 500 per semester, computer lab and training aid fee Tk. 2,000 per semester, tuition fee at Tk. 2,400 per credit, examination fee at Tk. 1,000 per theory credit, grade sheet fee Tk. 500 per semester, student welfare fee Tk. 1,000 per semester, cultural/magazine fee Tk. 150 per semester, center fee Tk. 1,500 per semester, with the grand total for MICT reaching Tk. 1,95,000 for the full program. The Regular MBA program costs approximately Tk. 65,590 in total, while the Professional MBA costs around Tk. 2,49,500. The Master of Social Science in Economics costs Tk. 23,580 per semester. Additional fees include Tk. 10,000 for re-admission, Tk. 5,000 per subject for non-collegiate study, Tk. 1,500 for late registration, Tk. 15,000 for special final examinations, Tk. 12,000 for retake courses, and Tk. 8,000 for supplementary examinations. For international students, estimated annual tuition ranges from approximately USD 1,000 to 2,500 depending on the program. Hall accommodation is available through rented buildings at Mirpur DOSH, housing around 400 students, with associated accommodation costs separate from academic fees.

Rankings

Bangladesh University of Professionals holds a modest but improving position in international and national university rankings. In the Webometrics Ranking of World Universities for July 2026, BUP was ranked 8,749th globally, 3,535th in Asia, and 45th in Bangladesh, with an Impact Rank of 9,288, Openness Rank of 4,783, and Excellence Rank of 7,402. The Webometrics ranking has shown fluctuation over the years, with the university reaching its peak global position of 6,164th in 2021 and its best national rank of 36th in 2017. According to EduRank's 2026 assessment, BUP ranks 4,242nd globally out of 14,131 universities, 1,426th in Asia, and 22nd in Bangladesh, with an acceptance rate of approximately 75%. EduRank notes that BUP has published 1,544 scientific papers with 15,159 citations across various research fields. The uniRank meta-ranking places BUP at 4,300th worldwide and 9th in Bangladesh. BUP is not currently ranked in the QS World University Rankings, Times Higher Education World University Rankings, or the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU). The university performs strongest in the subject areas of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, Environmental Science, Computer Science, and Business. In Bangladesh, BUP is consistently ranked among the top 25 to 30 universities nationally by most ranking systems. The University Grants Commission of Bangladesh recognizes BUP as a leading public university, and the institution has shown steady improvement in research output and academic reputation since its establishment in 2008.

Campus and Facilities Overview

BUP's campus spans 26 hectares (64 acres) in Mirpur Cantonment, Dhaka 1216. The lush green campus features modern academic buildings, a comprehensive library, computer labs, engineering labs, science laboratories, and dedicated research facilities. Student accommodation is available in halls (including a female hall). Sports facilities include football grounds (Team de BUP), basketball courts, cricket pitches, and indoor games. The campus has a medical centre (emergency contact: +8801769021999), security cell, ICT centre, cafeterias, and prayer rooms. The university provides a tranquil, pollution-free, and secure campus environment conducive to serious academic pursuits. BUP's campus is known for its disciplined atmosphere and military-style orderliness.

Scholarships and Financial Aid Overview

Bangladesh University of Professionals offers a range of scholarship and financial aid opportunities designed to support meritorious and financially disadvantaged students across undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate programs. The university provides up to 100% tuition fee waivers for eligible students, making it one of the more accessible public universities in Bangladesh for students from diverse economic backgrounds. Several types of scholarships are available, including merit-based scholarships awarded to students who achieve exceptional academic results in their previous examinations or maintain a high CGPA during their studies. The Dean's Merit Award and Dean's Honor Award are prestigious internal recognitions that carry financial benefits, awarded to students who demonstrate outstanding academic performance each semester. Students who secure top positions in the admission test may also qualify for tuition fee reductions. Additionally, BUP offers talent pool scholarships for students who excelled in the fifth-grade scholarship examination and general grade scholarships for those with outstanding HSC results. The university participates in the government's various scholarship programs for students from underrepresented backgrounds. International students may also be eligible for tuition waivers, as evidenced by BUP's tuition waiver offerings for the 2025/2026 session for international applicants. The Counselling and Placement Centre assists students in identifying external scholarship opportunities from corporate sponsors and development organizations. Faculty members may also recommend students for research fellowships, such as the ICT Division Research Fellowship awarded to meritorious research students. While specific scholarship amounts vary by program and academic standing, the overall financial aid ecosystem at BUP is designed to ensure that financial constraints do not prevent talented students from accessing quality higher education.

Notable Features

BUP is the only public university in Bangladesh operated by the Bangladesh Armed Forces, making it unique in the region. It is the sole session jam-free public university in Bangladesh. The university has a zero-tolerance policy for student politics, ragging, and campus violence. BUP affiliates 56 institutes across the country, making it one of the largest university systems in Bangladesh. The university serves both military personnel and civilian students, promoting civil-military relationship. BUP offers specialized programs in Security and Strategic Studies that are not widely available elsewhere. The Centre for Higher Studies and Research (CHSR) supervises over 600 research scholars pursuing MPhil and PhD degrees. BUP maintains strict discipline, dress code, and moral standards.

Course Details and Credit Costing

Bangladesh University of Professionals structures its course fees on a per-credit basis that varies by program and faculty. For the Master in Information and Communication Technology program, the tuition fee is Tk. 2,400 per credit hour, with the program totaling 36 credits, resulting in a tuition component of Tk. 86,400. Course registration is charged at Tk. 100 per credit, while examination fees are Tk. 1,000 per theory credit. For comparison, undergraduate programs have different costing structures: the BSc in Computer Science and Engineering program costs approximately Tk. 90,510 total for 160 credits, averaging roughly Tk. 565 per credit, though this figure includes all associated fees rather than purely tuition. The BBA in Management Studies costs Tk. 73,910 total for 133 credits. The BSS in Development Studies totals Tk. 68,850 for 126 credits. The Master of Social Science in Economics costs Tk. 23,580 per semester with a total of 33 credits across two semesters, making the full program approximately Tk. 47,160. The Regular MBA program totals Tk. 65,590 for 48 credits, while the Professional MBA costs significantly more at Tk. 2,49,500 for 66 credits. Additional per-semester costs include library fees (Tk. 500), computer lab and training aid fees (Tk. 2,000), grade sheet fees (Tk. 500), student welfare fees (Tk. 1,000), cultural and magazine fees (Tk. 150), and center fees (Tk. 1,500). One-time fees include admission fees (Tk. 10,000), ID card fees (Tk. 200), and tie or scarf fees (Tk. 940). Thesis or dissertation fees range from Tk. 400 to Tk. 2,500 per credit depending on the program. Overall, BUP offers significantly lower per-credit costs compared to private universities in Bangladesh, with annual tuition for local students estimated between 21 USD and 2,499 USD.

Faculty Information

Bangladesh University of Professionals employs over 710 academic staff members across six faculties, supported by more than 750 administrative staff. The faculty composition is unique in Bangladesh, blending military personnel with civilian academics, creating a distinctive educational environment. The current Deans of the faculties include Brigadier General Mohammad Shahiduzzaman Khan, ndc, afwc, psc, serving as the Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS), which encompasses six departments including Economics, English, Public Administration, Sociology, Development Studies, and Disaster Management and Resilience, with 49 faculty members and 1,288 students. The Dean of the Faculty of Business Studies (FBS) oversees departments of Business Administration General, Accounting and Information Systems, Finance and Banking, Management Studies, and Marketing. The Faculty of Security and Strategic Studies (FSSS) comprises departments of Law, International Relations, Mass Communication and Journalism, and Peace, Conflict and Human Rights. The Faculty of Science and Technology (FST) includes Information and Communication Engineering, Computer Science and Engineering, and Environmental Science. The Faculty of Medical Studies (FMS) offers programs in Public Health and Informatics. The Faculty of Business and Social Sciences (FBSS, BMA) serves military personnel with programs in International Relations, Business Administration, and Economics. Notable faculty members include Professor Dr. Mohd Aminul Karim of the Department of International Relations, who received the Springer Nature Editorial Contribution Award in 2026, Professor Syed Anwar Husain as Bangabandhu Chair, Professor Muhammad Ekramul Haque as adjunct professor of law, and many PhD holders across all departments including those who received their doctorates from Japan, Australia, the United Kingdom, and the United States. The Centre for Modern Languages (CML) offers certificate courses in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Japanese, and Turkish.

Scholarships (Detailed)

Bangladesh University of Professionals provides a comprehensive scholarship framework encompassing merit-based awards, need-based financial aid, talent pool scholarships, and faculty-specific recognitions. The most prestigious internal awards include the Dean's Merit Award and the Dean's Honor Award, granted to students who achieve exceptional semester GPAs within their respective faculties. These awards are conferred multiple times throughout a student's academic journey and carry both recognition certificates and financial benefits. The BUP Scholarship is awarded to students based on combined performance in admission tests and subsequent academic results, providing significant tuition fee reductions that can reach up to 100% for the highest achievers. Talent Pool Scholarships are available for students who demonstrated outstanding performance in the fifth-grade national scholarship examination, while General Grade Scholarships recognize exceptional HSC results at the board level. The university's policy for renewal of scholarships typically requires recipients to maintain a minimum CGPA, often 3.50 or higher on the 4.00 scale, and any failure to meet this threshold may result in scholarship suspension until the grade is restored. The Research Fellowship, funded by the ICT Division of Bangladesh, has been awarded to meritorious students in computer science and engineering fields, covering research expenses and providing monthly stipends. Faculty members also receive recognition such as the Jatio Shuddhachar Puroshkar (National Integrity Award), which was awarded in 2024 to faculty in the accounting department. For international students, BUP offers tuition waiver programs for the 2025/2026 session, as advertised through diplomatic channels including the Ministry of Education of Kenya. Additionally, the university's affiliation with the CFA Institute University Affiliation Program opens opportunities for students in finance and banking to access CFA program scholarships. The application process for most scholarships involves submission of academic transcripts, recommendation letters, and in some cases, personal statements, with decisions made by faculty-level scholarship committees.

Student Numbers

Bangladesh University of Professionals serves a diverse student body of over 10,000 students as of 2026, making it a mid-sized public university by Bangladeshi standards. The undergraduate population exceeds 6,800 students, while postgraduate enrollment stands at over 1,200 students, with approximately 50 doctoral candidates pursuing MPhil and PhD degrees through the Centre for Higher Studies and Research. Additionally, around 6,050 students are enrolled across various other categories including certificate programs, professional courses, and affiliated institutions. The gender ratio is approximately 49% female to 51% male, reflecting relatively balanced gender participation compared to many other Bangladeshi public universities. International students constitute approximately 1% of the total enrollment, hailing primarily from South Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. The faculty of Arts and Social Sciences alone serves 1,288 students, while other faculties maintain proportional enrollments. The university affiliates 56 educational institutions operated by the Bangladesh Armed Forces, including the Armed Forces Medical College (AFMC), the Armed Forces Medical Institute (AFMI), and numerous training institutions under the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Border Guard Bangladesh, collectively contributing tens of thousands of additional students to BUP's affiliated academic network. According to the uniRank database, BUP is classified as a small-sized institution with an enrollment range of 5,000–5,999 for its main campus programs, though this figure likely undercounts the broader affiliated population. The student-to-staff ratio is approximately 18.9 to 1. The university maintains moderate selectivity with an acceptance rate of around 75%, and students come from all 64 districts of Bangladesh, representing diverse socioeconomic and educational backgrounds.

Research

Research at Bangladesh University of Professionals is primarily conducted through two dedicated bodies: the Centre for Higher Studies and Research (CHSR) and the BUP Research Centre (BRC). The CHSR oversees MPhil and PhD programs across disciplines including Accountancy, Banking, Development Studies, Economics, English, Environmental Studies, Finance, Information Technology, International Relations, Journalism, Law, Management, Marketing, Mass Communication, Peace and Conflict Studies, Public Administration, Public Health, and Sociology, while also coordinating postdoctoral research. According to EduRank data, BUP has published 1,544 scientific papers accumulating 15,159 citations across various fields, with major research output in Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (1,096 publications), Environmental Science (808 publications), Computer Science (796 publications), Political Science (784 publications), Law (745 publications), and Business (629 publications). The university publishes several peer-reviewed journals: the BUP Journal (BUPJ, ISSN 2219-4851 print, 2789-0392 online), which has been publishing since September 2012 with 15 print issues and is now available as an open-access online publication indexed in international databases; the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Inquest Journal; the Journal of Faculty of Science and Technology; and the Journal of Innovation in Business Studies (JIBS, ISSN 2788-8673). The BUP Journal operates a double-blind peer-review process with reviewers from universities both in Bangladesh and abroad. Notable recent research includes publications in high-impact journals such as Nature-indexed journals and Springer Nature publications. Faculty members have received international recognition, including Dr. Mohd Aminul Karim's Springer Nature Editorial Contribution Award in 2026 for his work with The Journal of Humanities and Social Science Communications. Research areas of particular strength include sustainability, corporate governance, cybersecurity, disaster management, public health, and international relations. The university maintains research labs including computer labs, environmental labs, electrical and electronics labs, communication labs, language labs, and a media lab.

Innovation

Bangladesh University of Professionals has made significant strides in innovation, largely driven by its Information and Communication Technology (ICT) Centre, which has spearheaded the digital transformation of the entire institution. The university developed a customized Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system that automates academic, financial, vehicle management, store inventory, and administrative operations, with integrated modules for class attendance tracking, assignment submission, and examination result publication. All classrooms have been digitalized to support modern teaching and learning methodologies. The institution has implemented a web-based digital archive to preserve institutional records and publications. The BUP Research Centre supports faculty-led innovation projects and independent research initiatives, while also offering consultancy services to external organizations. The Faculty of Science and Technology maintains specialized laboratories for innovation in information and communication engineering, computer science, environmental science, and electronics. Students have developed practical innovations such as a real-time bus tracking application called BUP Bus Tracker, built on the MERN stack, which helps students and staff monitor university bus movements across Dhaka. The university has established industry partnerships with major corporations including Grameenphone, with a notable Industry-Academia Collaboration Initiative on Sustainability Reporting and Youth Upskilling launched in July 2026. The Department of Finance and Banking holds the CFA Institute University Affiliation Program, providing students with access to globally recognized financial analysis curricula. BUP Debate Club students achieved the EFL championship at the Australs debating tournament in 2022, the largest debating event in Asia and Australia. Innovation in teaching is supported through the Office of the Evaluation, Faculty and Curriculum Development (OEFCD) and the Institutional Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), which continuously review and update curricula to meet contemporary professional demands. The university has also established the Centre for Bangladesh Studies to promote research on national development issues.

Administration

Bangladesh University of Professionals operates under a structured administrative hierarchy led by the Vice Chancellor, currently Major General Md Mahbub-ul Alam, ndc, afwc, psc, MPhil, PhD, who has served since 5 April 2022. The Chancellor of the university is the President of Bangladesh, Mohammed Shahabuddin, as prescribed by the Bangladesh University of Professionals Act, 2009. The Pro-Vice Chancellor is Professor Khondoker Mokaddem Hossain, who assists the Vice Chancellor in academic and administrative affairs. The Treasurer is Air Commodore Md Reza Emdad Khan, GUP, BUP, ndc, psc, GD (P), responsible for financial management and budgetary oversight. The Registrar is Brigadier General Md Rabbi Ahsan, ndc, psc, who oversees day-to-day administrative operations. The Deans of the six faculties include Brigadier General Mohammad Shahiduzzaman Khan, ndc, afwc, psc as Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, and other Brigadier General or senior military officers leading the Faculties of Business Studies, Security and Strategic Studies, Science and Technology, Medical Studies, and Business and Social Sciences (BMA). The university's governance structure comprises four key regulatory bodies: the Senate, which is the highest policy-making body; the Syndicate, which handles executive decisions; the Academic Council, which oversees academic programs and standards; and the Finance Committee, which manages financial policies and resource allocation. Other senior administrative officers include the Director of the Centre for Higher Studies and Research, the Director of the BUP Research Centre, the Chief Security Officer, the Librarian, and the Proctor. The university maintains a zero-tolerance policy for student politics, ragging, and campus violence, enforced through a dedicated Security Cell staffed by 58 personnel including a Chief Security Officer, assistant security officers, security personnel, and Ansar members. The administrative staff exceeds 750 personnel supporting 710+ academic staff members.

News

Bangladesh University of Professionals has been active with numerous significant events and achievements between 2024 and 2026. In July 2026, BUP and Grameenphone launched an Industry-Academia Collaboration Initiative on Sustainability Reporting and Youth Upskilling, marking a major corporate partnership. In May 2026, Dr. Mohd Aminul Karim of the Department of International Relations received the prestigious Springer Nature Editorial Contribution Award for his work with The Journal of Humanities and Social Science Communications, which ranks number one in Social Science and number two in Humanities in the QS world rankings. In February 2026, BBA (General) students led BUP to national glory at the CFA Institute Research Challenge 2025–26. BUP's debate teams have achieved remarkable success, including the BUP AMS team winning EFL Champions at the Guangzhou United Asian Debating Championship (UADC) 2025, and the university hosted City Bank Presents BUP IV (Inter-Varsity Debate Tournament) 2025. The BUP Career Club hosted the BUP Career and Education Fair 2026 connecting students with corporate recruiters. In 2025, BUP signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Khon Kaen University's Business School in Thailand to enhance academic collaboration and student exchange. The university also signed an MoU with the Bangladesh Academy for Rural Development (BARD) in December 2024. BUP Department of Economics won the University Level Championship in the Bangladesh Economics Olympiad 2025. The tragic death of student Mir Mugdho during the 2024 Bangladesh quota reform movement was deeply felt by the BUP community. The BUP Alumni Association and BUP Law Alumni Association have been actively organizing networking events and the MCC launched Alumni Insights series in December 2024.

Help Desk and Student Services

Bangladesh University of Professionals provides comprehensive student support services through multiple dedicated offices and centers. The Counselling and Placement Centre (CPC) offers academic counselling to help students navigate their educational journeys, socio-emotional counselling for mental health and well-being, and career guidance services including individual interviews, workshops on job seeking, resume writing, and interview preparation. The CPC drop-in hours are Sunday through Thursday from 8:30 AM to 2:00 PM. The BUP Medical Centre, inaugurated in March 2010, operates under the Vice Chancellor's office and is staffed with a Chief Medical Officer, a Senior Medical Officer, one Medical Officer, one Paramedic, two Medical Assistants, and two Office Assistants. The centre extends services beyond regular office hours until 5:30 PM on working days, with additional coverage for self-finance programs on Fridays and Saturdays from 9:00 AM to 9:30 PM and on Sundays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 6:00 PM to 9:30 PM. A wheelchair is available on the 8th and 12th floors of the academic building for emergency patient transport, and the centre provides 24-hour on-call medical support. The ICT Centre maintains a help desk for technology-related issues, managing the university's ERP system, online portals, and digital classroom infrastructure. The Security Cell operates around the clock with 58 personnel ensuring campus safety. The university also maintains a suggestion portal on its website for student feedback. An anti-sexual harassment committee is in place to address complaints. The BUP Library provides research support through its RFID-based system and off-campus access to 12 international e-resources. The Physical Education Centre promotes student fitness and wellness with dedicated male and female trainers.

Alumni

Bangladesh University of Professionals has cultivated a distinguished alumni network comprising senior military officers, diplomats, civil servants, academics, and entertainment industry figures. Notable alumni include General Aziz Ahmed, Chief of Army Staff of Bangladesh from 2018 to 2021; General S. M. Shafiuddin Ahmed, Chief of Army Staff from 2021 to 2024; General Abu Belal Muhammad Shafiul Haque, Chief of Army Staff from 2015 to 2018; Lieutenant General Tukur Yusufu Buratai, Chief of Army Staff of Nigeria from 2015 to 2021; General Lucky Irabor, Chief of Defence Staff of Nigeria from 2021 to 2023; and Mansur Dan-Ali, Minister of Defence of Nigeria from 2015 to 2019. Other prominent alumni include M. Sakhawat Hussain, who served as an adviser in the Yunus ministry from 2024 to 2026; Masudur Rahman, a distinguished diplomat; and Mijanur Rahman, a civil judge. In the entertainment industry, Tasnia Farin, a well-known Bangladeshi actress, model, and singer, is a BUP alumna. The university community was deeply affected by the loss of student Mir Mugdho, who was killed during the 2024 Bangladesh quota reform movement. The BUP Alumni Association and the BUP Law Alumni Association actively organize networking events, mentorship programs, and professional development activities. The Marketing Control Council (MCC) launched the Alumni Insights interview series in December 2024 to highlight success stories of BUP graduates who have excelled in various professional fields. The BUP Career Club facilitates alumni engagement through guest lectures, corporate networking, and placement assistance. With over 10,000 graduates since its first cohort, the alumni network continues to expand across Bangladesh and internationally, with significant representation in the armed forces, civil service, banking sector, multinational corporations, and academia.

Campus

BUP's campus is situated in the heart of Mirpur Cantonment, Dhaka-1216, spanning 26 hectares (64 acres) of lush green landscape. The cantonment location provides a secure, disciplined environment that is unique among Bangladeshi public universities. The campus features modern academic buildings including the main academic block, faculty buildings for Arts and Social Sciences, Security and Strategic Studies, Science and Technology, Business Studies, and Medical Studies. The university library, administrative building, and a central auditorium are located at the core of the campus. The Mirpur Cantonment location provides excellent security with 24/7 military surveillance, creating a safe environment for students. The campus includes a central mosque, medical centre, sports grounds for cricket and football, indoor games facilities, and multiple cafeterias. The green landscape with well-maintained gardens and tree-lined walkways creates a pleasant academic atmosphere. Being within Mirpur Cantonment, the campus is close to several military institutions including the Armed Forces Medical College and the National Defence College. The campus is well-connected by road, with the Mirpur Road corridor providing access to the rest of Dhaka. The campus location offers a unique blend of academic life within a military setting, which contributes to BUP's reputation for discipline and its zero-tolerance policy for campus violence, ragging, and student politics.

Transport

The Mechanical Transport (MT) Section, operating under the Registrar's office, manages transportation services for Bangladesh University of Professionals, providing commuting facilities for teachers, officers, staff, and students from key areas across Dhaka city. Despite having a limited number of vehicles relative to its growing population, the MT Section operates an extensive network of bus routes covering major city corridors. Student bus routes include Route 1 from Abdullahpur via Airport, Khilkhet, and Matikata to BUP departing at 6:50 AM; Route 2 from Mirpur-14 via Kochu Khet, Mohakhali, and Jahangir Gate to BUP departing at 6:30 AM; Route 3 from Banglamotor via Moghbazar, Malibagh, Rampura, Badda, and Bashundhara to BUP departing at 6:30 AM; Route 4 from City College via Shamoli, Kollanpur, Technical, Mirpur-1, and Mirpur-11 to BUP departing at 6:50 AM; and Route 5 from Shahbag via Banglamotor and Kawran Bazar. Return trips from BUP to various destinations operate from 1:45 PM onward, with dedicated buses to Mirpur DOHS hall, Mirpur-12, and other areas. A shuttle service runs between BUP and Mirpur-12 with six daily trips starting from 10:15 AM until 5:40 PM. For evening students, dedicated shuttle services operate on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays. A BUP Bus Tracker mobile application, built on the MERN stack, has been developed by students to enable real-time bus tracking for the university community. The MT Section also provides 24/7 ambulance services to all BUP affiliates. The campus, located in Mirpur Cantonment, features parking facilities and is accessible via major roads from all parts of Dhaka. The university's location within the cantonment area ensures a secure and disciplined commuting environment.

Library

The BUP Library and Archive began its journey in 2010 with approximately 500 books housed in a 200-square-foot room on the third floor of the MIST Administrative Building. It has since expanded twice, in 2018 and 2021, and now occupies a fully air-conditioned space of approximately 10,600 square feet equipped with modern learning amenities. As of June 2024, the library's collection has grown to 28,063 books and 6,096 journals and magazines, primarily focused on department-related academic materials. The library operates an RFID-based library management system that allows users to independently check out and return materials, streamlining the borrowing process. A dedicated cyber corner provides students with access to digital resources and the internet. The library offers off-campus access to 12 international electronic resources through the RemoteXs platform, enabling students and faculty to conduct research from anywhere. The library's digital archive also preserves institutional publications, theses, dissertations, and historical records. The BUP Journal and other faculty publications are available through the university's journal portal at journal.bup.edu.bd. Library services are continuously monitored and evaluated for quality assurance. The library collection supports the academic programs across all six faculties, with strong holdings in business studies, social sciences, security and strategic studies, science and technology, medical studies, and modern languages. The library is open during regular academic hours on working days and provides research support services including bibliographic instruction, reference assistance, and inter-library loan coordination. The library is headed by a professional librarian supported by assistant librarians and library staff who provide comprehensive research assistance to the university community.

Career Opportunities

The Counselling and Placement Centre (CPC) at Bangladesh University of Professionals serves as the primary career services hub, bridging the gap between education and employment for students and graduates. The CPC offers individual career counselling sessions, workshops on job-seeking strategies, resume writing, cover letter preparation, and interview skills development. The centre coordinates with various organizations to facilitate internship and job placement opportunities for students. Career counselling drop-in hours are available Sunday through Thursday from 8:30 AM to 2:00 PM. The BUP Career Club, founded in January 2016, is a student-run organization operating under the Faculty of Business Studies that complements the CPC's efforts. The club organizes four major annual events: the BUP Career and Education Festival, the signature recruitment event where multinational companies and corporate firms visit campus to recruit graduates; Make It Count (MIC), a public speaking competition; BUP Career Edge, a nationwide skills training program; and Board-In, a recruitment-focused initiative. The club maintains a CV bank for BUP students that can be sent on demand to prospective employers. Notable corporate partnerships include Robi Axiata PLC's Graduate Trainee Program, NRB Bank PLC's campus recruitment examinations for Trainee Officer positions, and a collaboration with Grameenphone on sustainability reporting and youth upskilling launched in July 2026. The university organizes job fairs and seminars with corporate leaders, including sessions on topics such as AI for Future Leaders, time management, team building, corporate communication, and emotional intelligence. The Department of Finance and Banking's CFA Institute University Affiliation Program provides students with pathways to the globally recognized CFA charter. The CPC also provides academic counselling services and socio-emotional support to help students navigate their educational journey. With a LinkedIn following of over 19,000 for the BUP Career Club page, the university has built a strong online presence for career networking.
